

JERUSALEM QUARTETT

Das "Jerusalem Quartet" wurde im Oktober 1993 im Rahmen der "Young Musicians Group" gegründet. 1995 Premiere des Ensembles am Jerusalem Music Centre. In der Folge Konzerte mit Tabea Zimmermann, in der Israelischen Botschaft in Amman sowie Weltpremiere von Michael Wolpes "Allegro" für Streichquartett. Israelische Premiere der "12 Microludes" von György Kurtág in Anwesenheit des Komponisten. Konzerttournee nach Frankreich als Gäste des "Forum Musical de Normandie". 1996 Gastspiele in Oslo, Stockholm, Wien, Den Haag, Kopenhagen, Bratislava und Südafrika. Meisterkurse bei Isaac Stern, Henry Meyer, Tabea Zimmermann, György Kurtág, Michael Tree und Peter Kamnitzer. Gewinner des 1. Preises beim "Jerusalem Academy Chamber Music Competition". Der Geiger Avi Abramovich ist heute Lehrer des Quartetts.

Alexander PAVLOVSKY

Geboren 1997 in der Ukraine, 1991 Emigration nach Israel. Schüler von M. Liberman. Gewinner mehrerer Preise, u. a. 1. Preis "Jerusalem Rubin Academy Violin Competition", "Ilona Kornhauser Award" sowie 1. Preis "Braun-Rodger Siegl Competition for Violinists". Teilnehmer am Tuacan Festival in Utah, USA. Derzeit Solist im Jerusalemer Symphonieorchester.

Sergei BRESSLER

Geboren 1978 in der Ukraine, 1991 Emigration nach Israel. Schüler von M. Liberman. 1990 Solist beim Symphonieorchester Charkov (Ukraine), 1994 Solist im Jerusalemer Symphonieorchester. 2. Preis beim "Clairmont Competition for Young Violinists" und Teilnehmer am Tuacan Festival in Utah, USA.

Amichai GROSS

Geboren 1979 in Israel. Schüler von David Chen. Studium sowohl am Gymnasium der Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance als auch an deren Hochschule. Teilnahme u. a. an einem Seminar der Jeunesses Musicales 1995. Gewinner des 1. Preises im "Braun-Rodger Siegl Competition for Violists" 1996.

Kyril ZLOTNIKOV

Geboren 1978 in Minsk, 1991 Emigration nach Israel. Studium bei Uzi Wiesel und Hillel Zori. 2. Preis beim "Clairmont Competition for Young Cellists". Teilnehmer des Classical Winter Festival in Jerusalem sowie am Tuacan Festival in Utah, USA. 1996 1. Preis beim "Braun-Rodger Siegl Competition for Cellists".

JERUSALEM QUARTETT

The Jerusalem Quartet was founded in October 1993 as part of the "Young Musicians Group". First appearance in 1995 at the Jerusalem Music Center. Concerts with Tabea Zimmermann followed as well as a festive concert at the residence of the Israeli ambassador in Amman, world premiere of Michael Wolpe's "Allegro" for string quartet. Israeli premiere of "12 Microludes" by György Kurtág in the presence of the composer. Concert tour through France as guests of the Forum Musical de Normandie. In 1996 concert tour throughout Europe (Oslo, Stockholm, Vienna, The Hague, Copenhagen, Bratislava) and South Africa. Master classes with Isaac Stern, Henry Meyer, Tabea Zimmermann, György Kurtág, Michael Tree and Peter Kamnitzer. First prize-winner at the "Jerusalem Academy Chamber Music Competition". Violinist Avi Abramovich is teacher of the quartet.

Alexander PAVLOVSKY

Born in Ukraine in 1977, immigrated to Israel in 1991, student of M. Liberman. Several prizes, among others, 1st prize in the "Jerusalem Rubin Academy Violin Competition", the "Ilona Kornhauser award", 1st prize in the "Braun-Rodger Siegl Competition for Violinists". Participated in the Tuacan Festival in Utah, USA. Soloist with the Jerusalem Symphony.

Sergei BRESSLER

Born in Ukraine in 1978, immigrated to Israel in 1991, student of M. Liberman. In 1990 soloist with the Kharkov Symphony (Ukraine) and in 1994 with the Jerusalem Symphony. 2nd prize in the "Clairmont Competition for Young Violinists". Participated in the Tuacan Festival in Utah, USA.

Amichai GROSS

Born in Israel in 1979, student of David Chen, studied at the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance High School as well as at the academy itself. Participated in the Jeunesses Musicales International seminar in 1995. 1st prize in the "Braun-Rodger Siegl Competition for Violists" 1996.

Kyryl ZLOTNIKOV

Born in Minsk in 1978, immigrated to Israel in 1991. Studied with Uzi Wiesel and Hillel Zori. 2nd prize in the "Clairmont Competition for Young Cellists". Participated in the Classical Winter Festival in Jerusalem and the Tuacan Festival in Utah, USA. 1st prize in the "Braun-Rodger Siegl Competition for Cellists" 1996.